MORE ABOUT DAY-TO-DAY INTENSIVE ACTIVITIES:

Ballet Class – Every morning one of the first things a professional dancer does is take their ballet class.

Conditioning – These classes include stretching, strengthening, and conditioning.

Choreography and performance preparation – Studying ballet means learning choreography. Dancers rehearse for their showcase.

Skills Specific Class – In these classes dancers focus on a single skill and go deep into the technical aspects of that skill.

Educational Classes – Anatomy, Ballet History, Costuming, Performance Psychology... Educational classes are non-movement classes that increase your dancer's knowledge of the dance world.

Other Activities – Of course, your dancer will also have time for lunch and small breaks during the day. There will even be some free time when dancers can socialize, practice on their own, or just rest a bit.

We look forward to dancing with you this summer!
